

Why is it that some political group don't want border control?

No border control. Why? It isn't because congress members are all stupid. Could it be that the Republicans and their corporate supporters want a supply of cheap labor? Democrats want voters they can depend on and control. Regardless they are threatening our country and way of life.