

ALL LIVES MATTER

All lives are important. Tell me why that a Black life is more important than a White, Brown or Yellow? Death is the same for everyone. What may be the difference is the cause. Murder is murder regardless of who commits it. If we are a nation of laws there must not be exceptions to law because of a person's race, political connections, money or any other thing. George Floyd's murder was horrible but was it any worse than the death of a three year old that was raped and killed? What have the protest accomplished besides increasing racism, further dividing the people and the injury and killing of hundreds of innocent people? All of this could have been avoided if we had had a peaceful protest until a solution could have been worked out. I think that was the original intentions. But powerful groups who aren't interested in solutions took advantage of the emotional status and created the chaos we now have. Why were these groups able to turn peaceful protest into mobs?
